AT THE DAVIS THEATER. Big Spectacular Musical Act.

Heading the bill at this cosy play-house next week is Victor and his Mu-sical Melange, positively the biggost and highest salaried act that has ever appeared in Norwich. The act is com-posed of 20 people, all first class musi-cious and singer and coveres these clans and singers, and carries three spectacular settings of scenes laid in spectacular settings of scenes laid in Rome during a festival in 1870. The opening scene shows a church, monastery and vestry with a procession of monks going to vesper services, with church chlines, organ and singing accompaniment by the entire company Next comes a screnade in picturesque Roman gardens with Mile. Louise Bertram and the famous Victor screnaders. tram and the famous Victor serenaders in a melodious and spectacular moon-light scene. The act closes with a grand military review and brilliant pageant march by the entire company with Signor Califaty Victor, the emi-nent director, who will direct a variety of musical portralis, concluding with a famous national tableau. Nothing like this has ever been seen in this like this has ever been seen in this city and no expense has been spared to make it the greatest event of the season. Another act worthy of note is Contine and Lawrence, a man and woman who do a novelty singing and talking act, introducing upside-downdancing. The feature photoplay is Charles Dickens' great work, Oliver Twist, with Nat C. Goodwin as Fagin, a character he has made a tremendous hit in and many times packed the big Broadway theaters. This wonderful picture is in four parts and shows Mr ploture is in four parts and shows Mr Goodwin in his best role as an actor The other photoplays are Smiling Dan, a thrilling western drama, and The Girl Artist and Her Dog, a funny comedy picture. On Tuesday, the 11th inst., the moving pictures of the inauguration at Washington will be shown in this theater for one day only, giving those a chance to see the ceremonies who could not go to the capital

BREED THEATRE.

The Cowboy Millionaire, the Thrilling Two-Reel Western Feature.

There is an abundance of the true western atmopshere in the strengous two-reel story at the Breed today en-titled The Cowboy Millionaire, and as there is a whole reel of the week end pastimes of the cowboys, such as bucking bronchos, roping and throw-ing steers, expert lescoing and riding, there is enough amusement for all. The story of how the cowboy attempts to spend an immense fortune aided by his rough comrades is an interesting one, and the scene where Bud takes them to the melodrama is convulsing in the extreme. A yachting cruise is taken and the fearless riders of bucking bronchos are compelled to succumb to the call of Neptune, and each time tracks a will death for the roll. in turn makes a wild dash for the rail, where the limp figures hang in a sorry row. They are sent to their ranch by their host in a special car, and their xperiences are the comedy of this part of the film.

Two fine Biograph comedies, a Vitagraph comedy-drama and the splendid story of The Higher Duty complete this excellent programme.

AT THE AUDITORIUM.

Strong Bill Next Monday. A bill personally booked by coming direct from the Orpheum thea-ter, Boston, where it has been making a big hit the past week. The bill with the headed by Howard Truesdell & Co. an excellent comedy sketch entitled Her Husband's Friend. This is positively a big time act and its cast is made up of real actors who can hold your attention very closely throughout the entire playlet, which is really a little show all by Itself.

Pink Tea on the Wire, a really marrelous slack wire act, presented by Claude Rauf and his assistant. Mr

Rauf dines and does light housekeep ing stunts while suspended in midal on the slackest of slack wires.

Merritt & Douglass, a double come dy turn, will keep you screaming during their entire act, which is positively this city.

Sheridan's Ride, a big three-reel feature film by the 101 Bison company, and will be shown Monday and Tuesday and will keep the excitement at a high pitch all the time.

POETRY

TO W. H. TAFT.

In bidding you "farewell," our words have meaning Beyond the mere conventional "adlett"— Your countrymen, of whatsoever leaning,
Unite to wish that all fares well with you.

Although, of course, some politicians score you,
You wisely show you can ignore their darts;
And, more than many presidents before Yur personality has won our hearts.

And so farewell! The best of luck go with you.
As you return once more to private Be peace and happiness your guerdor

The world is full of deeds of praise,
But what is that to me?
I work my fields and do my chores,
Nor care want deeds they be.
Year in, year out, with giare and gold,
The wonder world goes by,
And all my fellows of the fields
As little care as I.

The children crowd about my knee
And question till I tell
About the golden wonder world
Where all their heroes dwoll.
Their eager voices thrill my heart,
I see their eyes a-snine.
And would not change for wonder worlds
This little world of mine.

A FARMER'S DEFENSE.

But O, it seems another world,
Out there where things are done,
Where glories worth a king's desire
We see so bravely won.
But something clutches at my heart
When I would rise and go
Who wins the most shall lost the most!
The world is ordered so,

So unashamed, I stand with those
Who do no deeds of praise;
We work our fields and do our chores,
Unhonored all our days.
We may not set the world on fire,
And yet we do our share!
Without our toil your wonder world
Would hungry go and bare.
